

Alexandria History Tours

A perfect activity for your association!

Alexandria History Tours wants to work with your association. We have worked with many associations that have met in Alexandria. We provide a fun and exciting experience for association members!

Example #1

We provided a walking tour to members of the Alabama Forestry Association on a morning tour. The group went to a local restaurant overlooking the Potomac River after the tour!

Google Review from the group organizer:

“We had a wonderful walking Tour of Alexandria! Tim was so accommodating for our group and was so knowledgeable. We enjoyed our tour very much and highly recommend it!”

Example #2

We gave a tour to 65 members of the National Funeral Directors Association. The group came to Alexandria from National Harbor. After the tour, we worked with a local restaurant which provided food and drinks for the group to enjoy!

E-mail from the group organizer:
“The Thursday tour was wonderful, we heard great feedback from attendees. You were very well organized and all the guides were fun and knowledgeable.”

A professionally guided walking tour is a low-stress, easy activity to set up for an association. Our association clients love exploring Alexandria and enjoying a guide showing them around town!

We recently had the pleasure of working with Alexandria History Tours as part of a large group for a conference, and they exceeded our expectations! This veteran and locally owned business delivered an outstanding experience, blending fascinating historical insights with entertaining stories during our guided walking tour of Old Town Alexandria. The professionalism of the guides and their deep knowledge of the area made this tour one of the highlights of our visit.

Whether you're in Alexandria for business or leisure, this is a must-do activity. Highly recommended for groups of all sizes!
