Our group clients have ranged from public and private companies, trade associations, non-profit organizations, civic groups, church groups, military units, reunion groups, plus student and educational programs. Let us know how we can work with your group!

What we offer large groups

- Fun and entertaining tours of Old Town Alexandria. Tours range from 1.5-2 hours.
- Customized themes on specific areas of interest.
- Recommendations for lunch, dinner or socializing at one of our partner restaurants and venues.
- Presentations on the history of Old Town Alexandria.
- Suggestions on additional activities and points of interest in the D.C. area.

Example #1

We provided Congressman Ed Case (HI-01) and his congressional staff a 1.5 hour tour of Old Town Alexandria. Tour topics included George Washington's leadership as well as other stories from American history such as Thomas Jefferson's multiple visits to Alexandria's local taverns!

“Tim was outstanding. He knows his stuff and clearly has a passion for Alexandria’s history. Definitely recommend his tours for anyone interested in learning more about Alexandria’s history.” -Tim, Chief of Staff to the Office of Rep. Ed Case (HI-01)

Example # 2

We worked with a fantastic group of nearly 30 Fellows with the Young Southeast Asian Leaders Initiative (YSEALI). We used Alexandria as a backdrop to discuss American history to help enhance the Fellows' cultural understanding of America. After this orientation, the Fellows traveled to partner cities throughout the United States to continue learning about American institutions and local governments. This was an afternoon activity after the group spent the morning at George Washington's Mount Vernon.

Example #3

We provided a military-themed, evening tour to a group of Air Force Reserve officers. We met them at their hotel and ended the tour at Alexandria Bier Garden, which we suggested as a great venue for the group to enjoy dinner after the tour.

“Tim provided a memorable and informative tour for my group. I reached out to Alexandria History Tours and their response was prompt and professional. He listened to what we needed in a tour and provided exactly that. I’d definitely use his services again.” -John (group organizer)

Other Examples:

- An association staying at the Gaylord National in Maryland joined us for a 1.5 hour guided walking tour. We helped them select a local restaurant, Light Horse Restaurant, which provided the group with bites and drinks after the tour.
- We provided a one hour tour to a non-profit group staying at The Alexandrian. We met the group at the hotel, gave them a guided tour of Old Town, and then ended the tour near Vaso's restaurant where they enjoyed a group dinner.

We are proud to be one of the highest rated activities in Alexandria!
